

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, August 9, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Former tax official indicted

1st West Nile death feared

WorldCom reveals new $3.3B error

Critics cry foul over Bush visit

ITC: Vietnam fish threatens U.S. farmers

Editorials

Bush 'made a difference,' for our roads!

President should stay in Washington

Governor's plan on 'saving' prison funds won't really work

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

West Nile blamed for Hinds death

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Will 'fat cat' connection dog Barbour's gubernatorial chase?

Legislator likes what Bush said on lawsuits

Bush speech gets senators talking

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Bush touts tort reform legislation

Laurel Leader-Call

Bush blasts 'lawsuit industry' during state visit

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

Mississippi's cigarette tax lags rest of nation

Opinions confusing on prison closure

The Bolivar Commercial

White House invites residents to meeting

Enterprise Journal McComb

The Greenwood Commonwealth

District writing scores at all-time high

The Natchez Democrat

Candidates debate differences

Debate should provide vital voter information

Mississippi Business Journal

Today's News

Magnolia Report

The New York Times

WorldCom Finds $3.3 Billion More in Irregularities

The Washington Post

in Revenue Errors

The Washington Times